Computerized Revolution : Launching of first ever Talking Dictionary in HINDI !

Considering importance of Computers in Education sector, Government sector as well as in day-to-day life, Khandbahale Automations, a Nashik based leading software company has developed revolutionary Computerized HINDI Talking Dictionary with painstaking efforts of 2 years. Honorable Human Resource Minister Shree. Murli Manohar Joshiji has launched it on occasion of National Day, 15th Aug 2003. It has been appreciated by the senioritis & educationalist from all over country. This is first time at world level that a Talking Dictionary especially in Hindi Language is available on CD-ROM. With more than 4 lacks words, this dictionary gives accurate Hindi meanings for any English word along with its correct examples, multiple synonyms, antonyms, grammatical specifications within fraction of seconds. It also includes special section of useful appendices, which carries the information about the trees, fruits, flowers, and part of the body, important proverbs and many more, so that it will be useful to improve our 'General Knowledge'. It is an effective tool for providing 'Education through Entertainment'. so educational institutes find it most useful. Considering Time-Saving factor, Government & private offices as well as commercial computer-users demanding it for their day-to-day activities. As this dictionary facilitate to listen all information in natural human voice too, it is now easy for students to learn spellings. Because most of the peoples don't know exact techniques of linguistic pronunciation, they often used to miss-pronounce words. Considering the same factor this dictionary is developed with such a technique in audio instructions that one can learn accurate pronunciation of English as well as Hindi words. Launching of this CD-ROM is good news for parents also, since their kids can improve their vocabulary instead of playing games on computer. Interface of the software is like a book only with more pictorial information so that any computer-illiterate person can refer it easily. Ocean of knowledge is now open for Blinds also. Without any help from others, visually challenged peoples & old persons can find out words and listen its information easily. As per the publisher, this dictionary is being promoted by the individuals as a 'Gift Item' at very large scale due to its low cost. Because of high demand & nice response from people, company is working on various updates and efforts are going on to launch a series of talking products in different Indian languages. These Hindi talking dictionary CD-ROMs are available for distribution at major Computer Traders and Books Stores. Company has started mobile services at 0-9422252466 to provide product information from all over country at low cost & instantly.
